TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

1- RESERVATION: A deposit equivalent to 30% of the total cost of the stay is required to secure reservations with a minimum duration of 7 days. The deposits can be paid via bank transfer, credit or debit card, cheques made out to the Estivel Company or holiday cheques, within 8 days of having made the reservation. By paying the deposit or outstanding balance of your stay, you thereby accept the terms and conditions of sale as stated below, along with the services and prices included as part of your stay. The balance must be paid no later than 30 days before the start of your stay. If your reservation has been made less than a month before your arrival on site, and/or is less than a stay of 7 days, you must pay the total cost of your stay on the day of your reservation by credit or debit card only. In the case of an unsettled balance within the deadlines, Estivel reserves the right to cancel the reservation and consequently apply cancellation fees. During event sales, flash sales and other limited time offers, the 30% deposit must be paid by credit or debit card at the time of reservation in order to confirm said reservation.

2- SPECIAL REQUESTS AND PREFERENCES: special requests and preferences (i.e. stores, orientation etc.) must be made known at the time of booking. All requests and wishes are considered wherever possible but are in no case contractually obligated nor guaranteed. Any dissatisfaction regarding requests and preferences cannot, in any case, be reason for cancellation, pretext for reimbursement or compensation.

3- REPRESENTATION: General information provided by resorts and tourist offices is given as an indication to the services on offer and cannot be considered as contractual insofar as certain equipment and/or services can be modified without notice during the season. Estivel cannot be held accountable for any changes or discrepancies between actuality and general information provided by tourist offices or resorts. It is equally important to note that certain resorts do not benefit from a medical infrastructure for regulatory reasons. The designation of residences is liable to change. Equipped accommodation generally comes with tableware, basic household appliances in order to prepare simple meals as well as bedding, duvets and pillows. Any supplementary equipment is noted in the accommodation's description. Bunkbeds are not suitable for children under the age of 6. Some of the homes with small or regular gardens are not enclosed.

The photos and images used in the brochures and the website are for illustrative purposes only and are not contractual.

4- PRICES: Our prices are in euros and comprise all taxes except the French tourism tax. Our prices are made up of the accommodation and the accompanying rental charges (water and electricity) unless specified otherwise in the accommodation descriptions, website or the reservation contract (electricity to be paid on site: 0.18c€/kwh on a meter reading, or flat rate depending on the type of accommodation, in certain residences during certain times). The prices do not include additional, optional services (household linen, bakery delivery service, end of stay cleaning service, guarantee, administrative costs (non-refundable in case of cancellation), stay packages for pets, cots and highchairs according to availability, bank charges on foreign cheques, sports memberships, and generally all benefits and services not explicitly planned at the time of reservation) which are made payable to the Estivel Company. The costs of these additional services are available in the fact sheets for each residence and for each extra service paid for, Estivel provides written proof of these services rendered. Any promotions are only valid insofar as one and the same accommodation is occupied by the same clients, for the entire duration of the stay.

5- OCCUPATION OF THE PREMISES: Week-long stays are counted as 7 nights on site. Any stays that are interrupted cannot be subject to reimbursement. The number of people staying at the accommodation must correspond to the number of people stipulated in the brochure; Estivel retains the right to refuse access to any additional guests. The tenant must respect and maintain the peaceful nature of the residences. Estivel must also remind you that as a tenant, you must verify that your public liability insurance covers holidays. The accommodation as well as the communal facilities are strictly non-smoking areas. Pets are allowed but a supplement will be charged (1 animal per accommodation, any more must be requested). Dogs belonging to category 1 and 2 as stated in law number 99-5 from 6 January 1999, are strictly forbidden from entering the heart of Estivel owned residences; failing to abide by this may lead to refusal of entry whilst the reservation remains active. Animals are to be kept on a lead whilst the reservation remains active. Animals are to be kept on a lead whilst in communal areas and must not, under any circumstances, put into question the safety of other tenants and tranquillity of the residences. Swimming pools are strictly off limits to animals. Pet owners must adhere to basic hygiene, both in the accommodation and the communal areas; failing to respect these basic rules, will lead to cleaning fees being added on to the deposit. The provisions of the 1952 articles and Civil Code relating to hoteliers are not applicable to Estivel as the company is subject to specific regulations pertaining to tourist residences. Consequently, Estivel is not responsible for the theft or damage of any personal belongings in the accommodation, communal areas, parking zones, or any other outbuildings attached to the residences. In the case of a force majeure, Estivel cannot be held accountable for any problems that could perturb or interrupt the smooth-running of your stay (avalanches, drought, flooding, oil spill, power outages of electricity, water, gas, strikes, works etc.). By works, Estivel means road or building works which could occur around your place of stay. Estivel cannot be held responsible for any third-party actions with which it has no contract. Holidaymakers will be informed of any potential nuisances on the sole condition that we ourselves have been informed.

7- ARRIVAL: Upon arrival you must submit all the documents concerning your reservation that Estivel sent to you following the payment of your outstanding balance. Arrivals usually occur between 17:00 and 19:00 on Saturday for minimum stays of a week, unless otherwise stated on the fact sheets for each residence. For residences accepting short stays, arrivals take place during the reception's opening hours. At the end of the stay the keys are exchanged against the deposit which varies depending on the residence: the price of which is indicated on your travel documents. The deposit is returned deducting any damages caused (i.e. any damage and/or disturbance of any kind whatsoever in the private and communal areas of the residence), additional optional services yet to be paid (household linen, bakery delivery, end of stay cleaning etc.) and loss of keys to the accommodation handed over on arrival. An inventory is given upon arrival. Any anomalies must be notified no later than 24 hours after arrival otherwise no complaint will be considered. It is important that you inspect the general condition of the accommodation and the inventory, mentioning (if applicable) any defective equipment or missing items before signing the document and handing it over to the reception.

If you are unable to arrive within the indicated time frame noted within your travel documents, it is obligatory to warn the staff, in order to know the procedure to follow so as to be able to retrieve the keys upon your arrival. If this procedure is not followed and you are obliged to make alternative arrangements i.e. hotel bookings, Estivel will not reimburse any additional expenses incurred.

8- DEPARTURE: on the day indicated on your booking contract, the accommodation must be vacated before 10:00(am). The accommodation must be returned in perfect cleanliness. Your deposit will be returned within a maximum period of 1 month, from the day of deposit after checking the inventory. You will be charged for any deterioration or damaged objects as well as cleaning fees, and any repairs made. If you deposit does not cover these costs, you will be made to pay the outstanding balance.

9- COMPLAINTS: Any complaints must be made on site and clients are given 24 hours to highlight any issues or anomalies. After this time, the accommodation is considered free of damage upon the tenants entering the premises and complaints will no longer be admissible. Any complaints related to your stay should be sent by registered post and addressed to Société ESTIVEL, 15 Place des Quinconces - 33000 BORDEAUX or by email at squalle@estivel.com, within 30 days after your departure. Requests will be processed within a maximum legal period of 30 days.
